LONDON, England, Nov. 2.—Various war despatches to the Daily Mail and the London Times agree that the Allies have won back to within four miles of Ostend, which is meagerly garrisoned.

It is alleged that an intercepted message from the kaiser to the king of Wurtemberg said that it was absolutely necessary that the Germans take Ypres before November 1. Otherwise, according to report, they must withdraw behind the Rhine.

DEMOCRATS DESPERATE ON EVE OF ELECTIONS

Governor Decides Election Day No Holiday

Tomorrow, general election day, will not be a legal holiday. Banks and business houses may close if they choose, but it is not required. Even the territorial offices, which heretofore have closed during general elections on the governor's order, may remain open tomorrow. Saloons will be the only establishments affected by a mandatory closing law.

In response to a request presented this morning by A. Lewis, Jr., and A. W. T. Bottomley, representing the local banks, the governor announced that the time is too short now to issue a holiday proclamation for the entire territory for tomorrow's voting, and the executive added that, moreover, such a holiday is not customary in the islands. His proclamation favoring the primary on September 12 was an exception, he said, made for the purpose of giving the new primary law a thorough test.

Strange as it may seem, there has been a general impression that the date of the general election is a holiday. All territorial, federal and private business offices may remain open and continue to transact business as on other days of the week, and the courts may continue their trials as usual. There is nothing to prevent any or all of these from remaining closed if they desire, however.

Circuit Judge C. W. Ashford, presiding over the criminal division of the first circuit court, adjourned today until Wednesday morning, thus creating a holiday for the jurors and attaches employed in that jurisdiction.

Some pressure has been brought to bear upon Territorial Secretary Thayer to induce him to authorize the closing of the territorial government offices tomorrow, but until noon today no such order was forthcoming.

STOCKYARDS ARE HARD HIT, BUT ORDER MODIFIED

Chicago Stockyards Quarantined Because of Dread Animal Disease

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.] CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 2.—The Union stockyards, the largest in the world, and the state of Illinois have both been placed under a quarantine order against either receiving or sending cattle, hogs or sheep on account of the appearance of animal disease, particularly the dreaded foot-and-mouth disease. This means the practical cessation of the tremendous packing business of this city.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 2.—The sensational quarantine order against the Union stockyards was modified today only a few hours after first being promulgated. The new order permits receipt of cattle, hogs, sheep, etc., for slaughter.

CARTER TO SAIL FOR MAINLAND ELECTION MORN

George R. Carter, Progressive candidate for delegate, will be on his way to San Francisco when the polls close tomorrow night and the votes are counted. He will get the returns by wireless.

Mr. Carter is going to sail for the mainland on the Siberia, on a pleasure and business trip, to be gone some four months. He will cast his vote before sailing.

He was asked this morning if he did not believe his departure early on election day would not mitigate against the vote to be cast for him. "No, I don't think I will lose any votes by going," he said.

Asked for a statement on the eve of election, he said:

"Those who believe in good government need not refrain from casting their vote for me on the theory that I have no chance to win and therefore the vote will be wasted. This is but one election of many. I am but one atom in the vast deposits that eventually build up communities and governments. If the people of Hawaii expect to get out candidates in the future who stand for good government, efficient government, clean government, the way to do it is to give these candidates enough support to afford them definite encouragement, whether they win or lose. I am willing to do my share, humble as it may be, to impress upon the voters the necessity for righteousness in government."

Mr. Carter said that he would be in the East for Thanksgiving. He expects to visit Washington on this trip.

Winn Powers, mayor of St. Paul, Minnesota, has written to Secretary H. P. Wood thanking the Promotion Committee for a case of pineapple which was forwarded the mayor on Pineapple Day. "The fruit is certainly all that you claim for it," says Mayor Powers, "and there ought to be a great future for your trade in the United States. The observance of a 'Pineapple Day' strikes me as a very happy idea and one worth continuing, at least for a few years."

BALLOTS MUST BE MARKED WITH PENCIL, NOT PEN

Every voter tomorrow should remember that under the laws of Hawaii he cannot mark his ballot with ink. The law states plainly:

Method of Marking Ballot. A voter shall designate his choice for senators, representatives and delegate respectively by marking with a cross, thus—X, WITH A black LEAD PENCIL in the right-hand space or spaces provided for such purposes, opposite the name or names of the candidate or candidates for whom he desires to vote.—Session Laws, 1907, Act 129.

Read the above and don't use fountain pen, or ink.

DID THETIS THREATEN TO FIRE ON JAPANESE SAMPAHS LAST NIGHT?

It was reported this morning that three Japanese sampans, en route to the visiting Japanese warships last night, had been ordered off by the U. S. revenue cutter Thetis and that the vessel flying the colors of Uncle Sam had been compelled to threaten to fire upon the Japanese before the order was obeyed. Efforts to substantiate this report were neither denied nor affirmed. Collector of Customs Franklin refused to commit himself in the matter, stating that there are certain matters coming before his office that must be kept secret.

NEW PRESIDENT FOR MEXICO NOT CARRANZA'S MAN

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 2.—Official despatches say that the Agas Calientes conference has disregarded the protest of Gen. Carranza and elected Eulalio Gutierrez as provisional president.

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.] MEXICO CITY, Mex., Nov. 2.—The election of Gutierrez has been confirmed. The term is for 20 days.

TO COVER UP MAYOR FERN'S BLUNDER, SUPERVISORS JAM THROUGH BIG ROAD PAY-ROLL

WHAT THE MAYOR SAID LAST TUESDAY.

"I don't want the road-laborers paid off just before election because they will all get drunk."

WHAT THE MAYOR SAID LAST SATURDAY NIGHT ON THE STUMP. "I told the county auditor, Jim Bicknell, to make out the warrants for the road laborers' pay. He refused to do so. The reason why the road men ain't going to get their pay is because Bicknell won't pay them."

WHAT AUDITOR BICKNELL SAYS AND PROVES BY WITNESSES.

"The mayor said he did not want the road-men paid because they would get drunk. No preparation was made to get out the warrants. The board of supervisors met both Friday and Saturday but did not mention the matter of passing the pay-rolls. Mayor Fern's statement that I have refused to pay the road laborers is an absolute lie. I said that this office could not handle all the warrants on Saturday without time being given to prepare them. This whole thing is a political play by the Democrats."

WHAT THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS DID TODAY.

Held a hurried special session to pass payrolls amounting to more than $10,000, deluging the auditor's office with warrants to be made out, with the intention of making the road-laborers believe the Republican auditor is holding up their pay.

At the city hall this morning both Fern and Supervisor Walter admitted that Bicknell was not holding up the pay. Fern said he had made his attack on Bicknell because the Republicans were "slinging mud on me."

WHAT BICKNELL AND HIS OFFICE STAFF ARE DOING TODAY.

Tackling the tremendous task of making out more than 700 warrants in a few hours so that the men can get their pay today if the city treasurer can handle his end of the transaction.

AND THAT'S THE KIND OF POLITICS THE DEMOCRATS ARE DOING ON ELECTION EVE.

A blunder by Mayor Fern last Tuesday, when he told Supervisor Lester Petrie that he didn't want the road-laborers paid off today because they would get drunk, has plunged the Democratic political camp into turmoil.

Mayor Fern and the Democratic supervisors, suddenly confronted with the anger of many voters at the mayor's tactless words, are now working literally night and day to cover up the blunder.

Their first efforts came to the surface last Saturday night in a Board meeting at Nuuanu and Paohi streets, when the mayor made the announcement that the payrolls were being held up in the auditor's office. He charged
